

Who is this book for?

All Children Ages 4-10

"When You Give a Girl a Puppy..." is for boys and girls regardless of whether they have a pet or not. Its aim is to celebrate the beautiful connection that children have with their pets. This book takes the reader on a journey from the girl and her puppy's first meeting to the development of an unshakeable bond that builds the girl's confidence and imagination.

The reader will enjoy the interdependent relationship that the girl and her puppy have, while they both love, and comfort each other. They will also learn about the messy side of having a pet and appreciate some of the responsibilities of pet ownership as well.

Teachers, Counselors & Librarians

It is a great tool for having a diverse selection of books for your readers. Great for all grade levels, K-5 to explore the joys of dog ownership while also highlighting the responsibilities it entails.

It fosters imaginative play, positive feelings towards animals which can contribute to self-esteem and self-confidence and the development of trusting relationships with others. It promotes emotional expression, developing non-verbal communication, compassion, and empathy. It also encourages feelings of responsibility, community, family and love. Children unfamiliar with pet ownership will learn to appreciate pets as beloved members of the family.
